

Tuesday, November 1st 2011

Co-Presidents' Message

Thanks to everyone who volunteered at both the Zoo and with Habitat for Humanity!

Please remember that Spring elections will be held at next month's REC meeting on December 8th. Please consider running for a position! It is a great opportunity to get involved and it's good for the resume. Talk to Eric or Tess if you have any questions. Keep your eyes out for an e-mail later in the month about the positions available and the election process.

We have Wisconsin gear for sale! Wisconsin Real Estate hats ($20), Real Estate Club t-shirts ($5) and Wisconsin pins ($5). Send an e-mail to president@realestateclub.com with your request and we'll bring the merchandise to next week's meeting.

Upcoming Club Events

- ◆ Thursday, Nov 3 REC Meeting at the Pyle Center
  - 6:30 pm Pizza and Beverages will be served
  - 7:00 pm Presentation by Jamie Stopplestad, CEO of Allianz America
- ◆ Thursday, Dec 8th REC Meeting at the Pyle Center
  - 6:30 pm Pizza and Beverages will be served
  - 7:00 pm Presentation by Terrence Wall, T Wall Properties

Announcements

- ◆ REC Elections coming up in December- Please think about running!

Tuesday, November 1st 2011

This Week's Presentation

James A. Stolpestad CEO of Allianz Real Estate of America

Mr. Stolpestad has had a long career in real estate across many sectors. In his current position at Allianz, he heads the real estate platform for U.S. investments for both the German and U.S. life insurance companies. Mr. Stolpestad attended Northwestern University for both his undergrad and MBA.

Highlights of career to date:

Member of management board of Allianz Real Estate and CEO of Allianz Real Estate of America

Managing Director, GE Real Estate, North America Equity

Senior Vice President, The Mills Corporation, Investments & Major Projects

Vice President, Acquisitions, Transwestern Investment Company

Vice President, Greystone Realty Corporation

Analyst through Vice President, Richard Ellis